Elke Groves' exquisite watercolors are the perfect one-of-a-kind gift to complement real estate brokering services. Clients will be impressed to receive a customized work of art to mark the occasion of a house purchase or sale. Elke specializes in home portraits and her experience includes a wide range of home styles from Victorian to modern.

Your clients will be thrilled at the prospect of having a fine art watercolor portrait of their house! For the seller, it will provide a valued keepsake of fond memories in a past home. For the buyer, it will be the ultimate house-warming gift. With each painting you will receive a set of 10 cards featuring the image of the home, which would be especially useful to new home owners to announce the change of address.
