PIX: The Pittsburgh Indy Comics Expo Adds Rob Rogers to Guest Line-Up

Pittsburgh, PA, 28 September 2011 – PIX: The Pittsburgh Indy Comics Expo is pleased to announce it has added Pittsburgh Post-Gazette editorial cartoonist Rob Rogers to its 2011 guest line-up.

Rob Rogers - Award-winning editorial cartoonist for The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette for over a quarter century and still going strong, Rob Rogers will be on hand both Saturday and Sunday signing prints and copies of No Cartoon Left Behind, the massive collection of his work recently published by Carnegie Mellon University Press. As a special attraction, he will draw his cartoon for Monday's paper while at PIX. His latest cartoons, along with a decades-spanning archive, are available at <http://www.robrogers.com/>

Presented by The ToonSeum on Saturday and Sunday, October 8 and 9, 2011, PIX is Pittsburgh's second annual exposition devoted solely to creator-owned, self-published, small-press, and handmade comics. Admission is free and the event is open to the public. PIX will be held at the newly refurbished 10,000 square foot top floor of the Guardian Storage facility located at 2839 Liberty Avenue in Pittsburgh's Strip District, just outside of downtown. PIX will run from 10:00am to 5:00pm on both Saturday and Sunday.

PIX is a co-production of The ToonSeum and The Copacetic Comics Company.
