

STUDENT SURVEY - MIDTERM
The Classical Roots of Western Literature
 Summer 2003 • Brown University

I very much want to make this an intellectually stimulating and enjoyable class. To this end, your comments on the following would be greatly appreciated.

Please circle the number that most closely reflects your opinion:

What aspect of the course has been most surprising?

Have introductory materials been sufficient to allow you to prepare readings for class?

If you could change one thing about the course, what would it be?

What suggestions do you have to improve the remainder of the course?

Any additional comments?
