

Inside Art: An Art History web site Internet hunt by Cindy O'Hora

Internet hunts often travel from one site to another. This hunt offers a directed exploration of one exceptional art web site. <http://homepage.mac.com/cohora/ext/artimp.html>

Go to the Inside Art: An Art History game. <HTTP://www.eduweb.com/insideart/> Follow the links on the painter's palette and in the text. Answer the following questions. If you get lost, use the links in the questions to help you get back on the path.

1. Who painted the painting?
2. How many paintings did he paint in his life?
3. What was he trying to capture with the painting?
4. Do you have to go outdoors to paint a landscape?
5. Who painted The Avenue?
6. What style of painting was the artist's?
7. What is a nickname used for an Expressionist artist?
8. Did he use soft or strong colors?
9. How did he use brushstrokes?
10. Where did he paint?
11. Where was he when he painted the boat scene?
12. What kind of painting is a still life?
13. Name a famous abstract artist.
14. In a portrait he painted entitled Portrait of Dr. Gachet he convey's the person's mood. How would you describe the doctor's mood?

15. Okay, I read every page! Great then you are ready to take the Final quiz -
How did you do?

Extras:

Learn More about Van Gogh and view his work at The Vincent Van Gogh Gallery
<http://www.vggallery.com>

Explore other Impressionists' works:

Claude Monet <http://giverny.org/monet/welcome.htm>

Pierre Auguste Renoir - <http://www.ndirect.co.uk/~nas/masters/renoir/renoir.htm>

Note: Inside Art: An Art History game is the work of Educational Web Adventures. Check out their other great adventures! <http://www.eduweb.com/portfolio/adventure.php>