

A new 350-page hardback book recalling the Grammar School with many memories from the old boys of 1930s to 1970s

Forewords from Old Grammarian Sir David Frost and French Master Richard 'Buzz' Temple

Celebratory launch at The Wrenn School, Doddington Road Saturday 28 October

Doors open from 1pm

Stroll around the school and view an exhibition of photos recording eminent visitors, including Nobel Prize winners, international celebrities, war heroes and royalty. There are also exhibits presenting the life of the school from 1930 to 1975

BOOK LAUNCH 2pm

Chaired by Old Boy Sir Bruce Liddington, National Schools Commissioner

The book will be on sale for £15 (normal price £17.95) and the authors will be present to sign

Also available from The Park Gallery & Bookshop, 16 Cannon Street; The Old Grammarians, 46 Oxford Street; The Heritage Centre, on-line at www.wellingboroughgrammarschool.org.uk or by post from Graham Tall, 432 Station Road, Dorridge, Solihull, West Midlands B93 8EU at the regular price of £17.95 (total £20.64 including postage and packing)