16 Feb 1631	John HICKMOTT/Joan SUNNYBANKE The LDS IGI shows that a Johanna Sonibanke was baptized at Mersham in Surrey on 25 November 1607. Her parents were Charles and Joane Sonibanke. She died at All Saints at Oxford in 1673. In her will she wished 'to be buried at St Andrews Holborn, where her husband and five of her children are' (the National Burial Index shows that a Mary 'Hickmutte' and a John Hickmott were buried at New Windsor in Berkshire on 30 April 1639 and 2 March 1642 respectively). Joane left the family's estates to her only sister Elizabeth Longbaine, then a widow of Oxford. Sums of money were left to a number of nephews including Nathaniel and Thomas Chiles/Chyles. John's will, proven in 1657, states he was a gentleman then living at Clifford's Inn in London. He and Joan were the freehold owners of Hartley Manor Farm (then called Daltons, later Hartley Wood Farm) at Hartley south of Cranbrook in Kent. They also had lands and tenements at Staplehurst and Aylesford in Kent, Mersham in Surrey, Cuddesdon near Oxford, High Onger in Essex, and St Andrews at Holborn in Middlesex. John left his estate to the couple's only son, Charles, who was born in around 1646 and died in 1668 while he was at Oxford. It seems that prior to his death, Charles may have married Mary Smith, the daughter of John Smith, at New Wickham in 1665 (see below). John also left sums of money to his 'loving mother-in-law Mistress Joane Sunnibanke', his 'sister Longbane to buy mourning', his niece Margaret Read, and to the joint overseers of his will, his brother-in-law Longbane and 'cousin Thomas of Goudherst'. 09 May 1665	Chas HICKMOTT, gent, 19, uni Oxford/ Mary SMYTH, sp, 16 Charles was the only son of John and Joan Hickmott nee Sonibanke who owned lands and tenements in various parts of southeast England. Charles died at Oxford in 1867/8. In his will, proven in 1673, Charles was described as a gentleman of New Windsor in Berkshire. He left his estate largely to his mother,	Gt Wickham

Joan, and amounts of money to his aunts Longbaine (Joan's sister) and Andrews, uncle Wiberd, and various cousins: Nathaniel and Thomas Chyles, Christopher and Edward Potter, Gerran Longbaine, Thomas Lake, and cousins Rose, Offeley, Pollington and Sunnibanke. The will also included the interesting 'Item: I do give and bequeath out of my due respect and love unto Mistress Mary Smith, daughter of Mr John Smith, the sum of £100... as a testimony of my affection to her and undeservedness of her virtues', suggesting that the marriage may not have been consummated or was challenged by the family.

04 Apr 1811	John HICKMOTT/Susanna YEOMANS Baptised at East Malling in 1785, John was the only son of John Hickmott and Mary Nixon. Susanna was also born at East Malling, in 1793. The LDS IGI indicates that John and Susannah had two children baptized at East Malling – James (1813) and Mary Ann (1817). The 1841 census indicates they may also have had a daughter, Susan, who was born in around 1816. John died sometime between 1851 and 1871. By the latter date, Susanna, then aged 78, was an inmate at the East Peckham Union House. She died in 1879, aged 86 years.	Maidstone	igi
