Online Bibliography. Version 1.0 (050509)
© 2009 Copyright Gary R. Bunt
<http://www.virtuallyislamic.com>

This is the first version of the online bibliography to accompany iMuslims: Rewiring the House of Islam. All links were correct at the time the book went to press. At this stage, I have not separated books, articles, web pages and other sources. All sources are in this listing, classified alphabetically. A more refined version of this resource may be made available in due course. If you are looking for a specific term, use your browser's search box. Full information about these links can be found in the Endnotes to iMuslims, and in the text itself. Links and content changes: you may find archive copies elsewhere. Content is provided for information purposes only. A PDF of this document is also available.
