

WE, WE, WE – ARE KENNEDY by Ms. Natalie Williams

Beloved Students, Young Minds, Stay Free
Past, Present, Future. You Come To Me
They Are Trying To Take You Away From Me
But, I'll Let You Know That This Can't Be
Thank You, Thank You For Defending Me
A Teacher Is What I was Made to Be
I Influence You; You Influence Me
You are the Me I was to Be
I am the You that You Must See
Our Ancestors – They Call to Thee
To Action – for We Must All Agree
In the White Power System,
Down at the Bottom, It's We
This - is Our Community
You see We, we, we Are Kennedy!
A Radical, a Leader, an Activist - You
How Could You Be Not,
With All What You Have Been Through?
Liberate Yourselves From Mental Slavery
Read, Write, Read
Some of Those Books for Me
No One, Nobody, Shall Take Over Me
Instead, They Cover Their Asses;
Take No Stance, Survive, Just Be
Fill Your Classroom With Incompetents
Suppress Your Intellectuality
Then Proclaim to the World
That She Must Be Crazy
Forever, Your Teacher; You are Mine, You See
You Told Me So, the Nickname Fits to a T
I'll Always Remember; “ Miss, you a ‘G’ “
Who Now Will Plant the Seeds
Grow the Children; Renew Our Citizenry?
Rap to This Song Add a Beat, Sing with a Lilt
Our Words Have Power
And These are Meant to be Felt
This - is Our Community
You see We, we, we Are Kennedy!
