Killing Fishes

I am slowing down
And getting cold with age
You love without love
Because it's made of rage

I watch the days go by
Swimming fishes in silver streams
I watch the years go by
Killing fishes in silver streams

I am falling now
How far I'm not too sure
You are calling me
Stone cold but so white so pure

I am turning blue
Lips grow hard and cold
You are slowing down
And we are growing old

Swimming in our silver streams

Hold On

I've done everything
In spite of the pain - I do it again
But I'm beginning to slip - I'm losing my grip
Well, hold on
I know everything
And there's no place for a lonely face
I'm beginning to slip - I'm losing my grip
Well, hold on

I've got nothing to lose
With such a short fuse you're not hard to abuse
I'm beginning to slip - I'm losing my grip
Well, hold on
I've made all the sins
But there's no place
No state of grace
I'm beginning to slip - I'm losing my grip
Well, hold on

Old

Something in the way you looked at me and I saw fire
Giving up nothing, nothing cold as your shoulder
Taking in the way you said "Hello" you were a liar
Looking for me but I was old, getting bolder with age

You were looking for me in the place where you left me
But I had gone from the moment I knew you weren't coming back
Giving up nothing – and I knew you were waiting
Waiting for me but I was old, getting bolder with age

Something in the way you looked at me and I saw fire
Looking at nothing, nothing sad as you are Giving up the way you wanted me for an hour
Wanting to run but I was old getting colder with age

Web

Killing is the beat of my heart
Drumming over and over in my head
I'm forgetting everything about you
And all of the things that you said

*I hope I won't remember
When I'm waking up in bed
I open my eyes and find myself suffocating
Caught up in your web*

Breaking are the walls between us
Desperation seems to fade
I'm forgetting everything about you
And the lies I'll save for a rainy day

Forgive And Forget

I watch as empty shadows pass my way
And you look as if you needed something gray
The signs you send are all you need to say
But I'll bet the truth has never seen the light of day

I'll sacrifice
I'll pay the price
If you come back some day
I'll forget it all
I'll ignore all your lies
I'll forgive all the things you've broken inside

So give me it all and I'll come back to you
And by now you know there's nothing I wouldn't do

People often compromise the tune
And I think they don't know what they do
Yes I think I know how hard it is for you to try
And I'm sure you've suffered through the tears you must have cried
But you don't understand the feelings deep inside
And you turn everything into a great big lie

Red

It's not the way that you look at me
It's not the way that you feel
Though my heart is breaking down
I can feel your eyes upon my back
Lying in a pool of red
It's gone to my head
I feel like the dead
And I'm swimming around in color

It's not the way that you drop down to your knees
It's not the way that you're crying out
Though my heart is breaking down
I can feel your eyes upon my back
Lying in a pool of red
It's gone to my head
I feel like the dead
And I'm swimming around in color

The Shining Wall

Little boy flies amid the skies so high
Raining down like angels' tears, he cries

*He wails upon the shining wall
And circles in the dark
He waits until the clouds come in
And circles
Waiting*

He only wants to see your face again tonight
Simpler times could never seem so far
He'll wait until his heart will break in two tonight
And there's nothing you can do from where you are

He's waiting for you

Dream

Falling asleep I try to dream

I remember everything
And all the things I wanted
Looking through you
Into the light
I can see all the things I need

*But was it just a dream?
Was it just a vision?
Could it be imagination pulling me from sleep?
Was it just a dream?
Was it just an illusion?
Or was it leaving me something I could keep?*

Feeling the heat of your fire burn
I remember everything
And all the things I wanted
Walking through flames
Out from the cold
I can see all the things I need

Somebody New

Lost in the darkness of some old nightmare
Feeling my way along the walls
Twisting around and always feeling air
Fearing my own fears over all

*Now, there down the hall
Now I can hear sound coming through
Now, here in the dark
Now I can feel somebody new*

Dry as brittle bone
Lost inside my newfound home
Feeling myself falling in deep
Fly over eyes of blue
Eyes that can see through you
Losing my mind, failing from sleep

Home in a room that I don't remember
Scraping my nails along the floor
Echoing on
Stealing the air from my reach
Calling my own
Wanting more

Lie on a bed
But I'm not alone
Feeling my eyes follow you
Free of the nightmare
Free of the pain
Waiting beside somebody new

Harder

She knows there's an empty world outside
A lonely cast of characters
With nothing past the dead end
Stop
We'll talk about the grace

*It's getting harder to understand her
It's getting harder to make some sense of this*

She knows there's a lonely life outside
A few left over feelings

She knows there's an empty world outside
A lonely cast of characters
With nothing past the dead end
Stop
We'll talk about the grace

All That I Used To See In You

When the night falls I breathe in open air
And I find myself alone again with you

*Now in the daylight I find that I'm blind
And all that I used to see in you
Was left behind tonight*

When the day breaks into the glaring sky
And I find myself alone again with you

Then the night falls under the darkened sky
And I find myself alone again once more

Till It Hits You

Come with me to the secret places
Lost within your heart
You never know till it hits you
Give in to me
And to your deepest desires
Calling from your heart
You never know till it hits you

Believe in me
And all the words I meant to say to you

You never know till it hits you
Leave with me
I'll give you all that you could ever need
You never know till you try
