

PHYZLAB SPRINGBOARD: NEGATIVE LENSES

Negative Lens Sheet

Configuration 1.

Parallel gray lines are "aiming lines." Incident beams must be parallel to these lines but not necessarily in the same position as any of these lines.

Configuration 2.

Center incident beam follows this line.

Parallel gray lines are "aiming lines." Incident beams must be parallel to these lines but not necessarily in the same position as any of these lines.

Center lens on the intersection of this line and the center beam line.

Center refracted beam follows this line.