

Climate Action Carnival Hereford

Last Saturday of every month:

Family-Friendly Events & Carnival Procession

The Copenhagen Climate Summit in December may be the most important meeting in human history - we have less than 10 years to control global temperature rises & slow down climate change! The Climate Action Carnival is a chance to show that we want politicians to make the right decisions in Copenhagen & that we are ready to make changes in our own lives.

Saturday 26th September, 11am onwards

Join us in High Town for poetry, performance
& a FREE SAMBA DRUMMING WORKSHOP!!

Join the Carnival around High Town 12–1pm

Then come along to the Shire Hall:

1 – 1.45: "THE AGRICULTURAL REBEL" free entry to the first Hereford showing of this inspirational film about Permaculture in the Salzburg Alps.

1.50 – 2.40: GARDENER'S QUESTION TIME !!

Bring along your Grow-Your-Own and local food supply questions for our panel of local experts.
