

MT Week One Principal Parts

present	future	aorist	perfect active	perfect middle/passive	aorist passive	English meaning ἀγγέλλω	ἀγγελῶ	ἤγγειλα	ἤγγελκα	ἤγγεμαι	ἠγγέλθην	to announce ἀφικνέομαι	-ίξομαι	-ικόμην		-ἴγμαι		to arrive ἐγείρω	ἐγερῶ	ἤγειρα	ἐγήγερκα ἐγρήγορα (intr. pres.)	ἐγήγερμαι	ἠγέρθην	to arouse θάπτω	θάψω	ἔθαψα		τέθαμμαι	ἐτάφην	to bury μανθάνω	μαθήσομαι	ἔμαθον	μεμάθηκα			to learn, understand πίμπλημι	πλήσω	ἔπλησα	πέπληκα	πέπλησμαι	ἐπλήσθην	to fill τυγχάνω	τεύξομαι	ἔτυχον	τετύχηκα	τέτυγμαι	ἐτύχθην	to happen or chance some grammar topics: epsilon contracts in the middle, contract futures, future deponents, thematic root aorists, 2nd perfects (with present meaning), consonant stem middle/passive perfects, -μι verb conjugation, supplementary participles with τυγχάνω (vs infinitives), ἀγγέλλω in indirect speech (takes all three constructions)

some exercises

1. He arrived and announced to the citizens that a great war was about to take place.
2. The foreigner's news roused the shameful citizens to action (try a ὥστε clause).
3. Let her be buried next to her brother.
4. Did you notice (μανθάνω) that the ship was full of soldiers?
5. They actually arrived at (ἀφικνέομαι εἰς) Athens on the same day. / We happened to arrive at Athens the day before.